Friends—We All Need One

Daniel Gerard Weissart
1974-1986

We lost Daniel, a good friend, who would have been in seventh grade this year. Daniel loved baseball and football and was good in all sports. We miss our fun loving friend, Daniel, but we'll never forget him.

The staff worked industriously on the first HIGHLANDS HIGHLIGHTS yearbook. The nucleus of the staff (opposite page) consisted of Denise Shoemaker, Mark Plocki, Kim Machen, Matt Plocki, and Michelle Persun (seated). Each morning before school, several times after school and in the evenings, and during study halls, the staff met with the advisors (right). The remainder of the staff consisted of Laina Sheftick, Dawn Vunora, Tammy Bresciak, Carol Blackburn, Melissa Svitak, Brian Wells, Denise Miller, Brian Keller, Heather Shoaf, Tracey Schrag, and Patricia Lopreiato, shown below. Missing: Chrissy Ruffner, Adam Kohm, Eric Malloy.

Yearbook Staff

A little over a year ago, Mrs. Cernicky and Mrs. Nitowski had an idea. Wouldn't it be terrific if a yearbook was available to capture all those treasured memories of Junior High years? Upon surveying the students, it was learned that they were very receptive to the idea of having a Junior High yearbook. Since the school district was unable to appropriate funding for this project, Mrs. Cernicky and Mrs. Nitowski took it upon themselves to tackle this monumental task. With Mrs. Cernicky handling the photography and formating, and Mrs. Notowski in charge of sales, typing and distribution, the maiden project came to a successful outcome.

Student Council

Student Council, sponsored by Louise Nitowski, is in perpetual motion. Through the efforts of officers Scott Zigo, Pat Graczyk, Missy Culleiton, and Jennifer Rusiewicz, along with the representatives and alternates, a myriad of activities have occurred. Some successful projects include: Jack-O-Lantern Jam Dance, Brown and Gold Day, decorating ninth grade football champs lockers, Halloween Dress-Up Day, Teen Action Day bake sale and slogan contest, name jersey sale, Pitt vs. Miami football game field trip, Carnation sale, breakfast for teachers on National Teachers' Day, as well as treats on Christmas, Valentine's Day, and Easter, Rams/Latrobe basketball game bus, WEEP/Faculty and Varsity/J.V. basketball games, and numerous assemblies.

CARNATION SALE

Student Council sold and delivered flowers with ribbons for Valentine's Day. Helping with the arrangements are: S. Zigo, J. Johns, B. Bain (aide), P. Graczyk, M. Person, D. Emanuelson, J. Rusiewicz, C. Crowe.

Another activity of Student Council was the Thanksgiving Fund Drive. Over 1,800 non-perishable items were donated to the Salvation Army. Homerooms contributing the most food were those of Miss Urik and Miss Derbaum.

The Christmas Fund Drive was also successful. Beneficiaries of the $1,750 collected were Children's Hospital and the Community Library of Tarentum. Miss Urik's room collected the most money. The room with the second highest amount collected was that of Mr. Korczynski.

Halloween Means Dress Up Day!

Student Council celebrated Halloween with a dress up day—complete with costumes and prizes. The event was a lot of fun with over 200 students entering their costumes for judging and of course wearing them throughout the day.

Some strange characters were seen wandering around school that day. These tourists are checking their maps. The Wizard of Oz gang never did find the Yellow Brick Road. The old geezer got himself a date! Meanwhile, the Halloween parade goes on as the bag lady feeds the baby, Ernie drops in—Where's Bert?

Volleyball Champs . . . Students Or Teachers?

Another Student Council sponsored activity was the student-faculty volleyball game assembly. Excitement was high as the game began. The fans cheered on their favorites. Ken Hanzlik (right) tries to intimidate his opponents and Jarrod Johns (below) gets ready to blast one. Mrs. Cernicky (below) goes for the jump shot and Mr. Gill and Mr. Korczynski make a super spike. In the end, fans were satisfied with a tie; one game to the teachers and one for the students.

D.E.C.A. Club—Distributive Education Clubs Of America

The purpose of D.E.C.A., which is sponsored by Mr. Dan Cali (pictured left), is to promote student growth in the following areas: vocational understanding, civic consciousness, social intelligence, and leadership development.

This year the ninth grade D.E.C.A. Club participated in the Ronald McDonald House fund-raising project. Brad Anderson, Chris Haas, and Dave Zembrzuski were recognized for outstanding achievement in this project.

The club's members are pictured below. Over seventy ninth graders are members of D.E.C.A.

After warm-ups and stretch outs, (remember handstand contests?) the girls could choose to work on vault, beam, bars, or tumbling. A special thank-you goes to members of the Varsity Gymnastics Team who came to help out the club.

Gymnastics Club

Our Junior High Cheerleaders have won several awards this year. With their ability to involve the fans in cheering on our teams, they too are winners.

The 7, 8 & 9 Times (The Newspaper Club)

THE 7, 8 & 9 TIMES reports some of our fondest memories and most important events of the school year. Sponsored by Miss Cheryl Griffith (right), the TIMES is published quarterly. It is both informative and entertaining, as it recognizes the achievers, keeps us on top of what's happening at the Junior High, and highlights current trends in general. Any Junior High student who is capable of reporting the facts accurately, can be creative at times, and has the discipline to meet a deadline is welcome to join the staff throughout the school year. Below, reporters take a break after publishing the second edition. Heather Shoaf, the editor, presents a copy of the paper to Ken Hanzlik for review. Standing behind Ken (left to right): Michelle Persun, Hillary Hudson, Heather Walter, Denise Miller, Michelle Graycar, and Marci Lacoskie. ## Band And Chorus 7-8

The Junior High band, pictured above, is comprised of students from 7th and 8th grade. It performs for pep assemblies, the National Honor Society, awards assemblies, elementary programs, and orientation events. There is an annual Christmas and Spring concert.

Mr. Lou Pisani, band director, has the talent to inspire and teach each musician to perform above his or her natural ability. To hear our band perform is an experience generally reserved for those listening to a professional orchestra.

Mr. Bill Danik, director, brings out the best voices with his diligence and discipline. When the chorus performs, it is truly a delight.

The 7th and 8th grade chorus meets twice a week, and the 9th grade chorus meets five times per week for the entire year. The groups perform two concerts a year, one at Christmas and one in the spring. Membership is open to all students who like to sing and are willing to work.

Pictured at the right are the 7th and 8th grade members of the chorus.

Junior High Rams

The Junior High Rams finished their second undefeated season. Again, Mr. Tom Stabile was the outstanding coach. The team had some vigorous practices, but it all paid off when the Rams went 6-0. Mr. Stabile had help from assistants Scott Yorkison and Jimmy Joe Collins. Highlands' offensive line provided room for the Rams' runners and time for the quarterback. The defense was strong and hard to penetrate. Congratulations, boys!

Ram's Rap

Rams are Number One!
And if we don't win the game we feel ashamed
Because we are the best! Better than the rest,
And win football games in any contest.
So come on team let's knock them down,
Cause Number One color is Gold and Brown.

This year's Junior High wrestling team had a winning record for the first time since 1978. Their overall record was 7-2. In their first match against Richland, the Rams won, 79-27. Into the season, they defeated Burrell, Riverview, Kittanning, Fox Chapel, Elderton and Valley. The Rams' only losses were against Indiana and Kiski Area. They placed second in dual meets in the WPIAL Section 5 tournament in Kiski Area. Newly appointed head coach Bill Barker did extremely well for his first coaching job ever. Tracy Negley, Ted Lengwin, Jim McGowan, Jim Hasson and Jeff Kroschik went undefeated. Five of the nine matches were won by more than 24 points. There are only seven wrestlers who are moving to the JV team. Next year we anticipate an even better record.

The Highlands Swim Team Rap

With goggles on our eyes,
caps on our heads,
Look out world—
we'll knock them dead.
With practice at 6,
practice at 3,
No. 1's what we're gonna be.
Up and down the pool,
off the blocks—
the Highlands Swim Team really rocks.
With Becca and Barb coaching
every day,
the Rams Swim Team is on its way.
We know we're bad,
we know we're cool:
and in the pool,
we really do rule.
Now that you know what Highlands swimming is all about,
come on everybody
let's hear you shout!

Some sports at Highlands have a Junior High team. But for some, 9th grade means it's time to compete "with the big boys", that is, the sophomores, juniors and seniors. Being on a varsity team means hours of hard work to keep up with some very tough competition. This year, freshman swimmers contributed an enormous amount of enthusiasm and effort to their team. Swimming and singing the "Highlands Swim Team Rap", they made it a memorable year. The gymnastics team included four freshman. Crissy Altfather, one of the top scorers on the team, earned the right to compete at the State Gymnastics Championship at Shippensburg University. Yvette Hamm and Chris Spanik were both starters on the girls' basketball team. Yvette earned the position of overall high scorer on the team. Brandon Cernicky, the lone 9th grader on the golf team, is looking forward to more successful seasons.
